The report is jointly presented by the Department of PG. Commerce.

University Rank Holders – Department of PG. Commerce

The Department of Commerce takes immense pride in recognizing the academic excellence of its students who have secured university ranks. Their consistent efforts, dedication, and commitment to studies have brought honor to the institution.

During the academic year, Ms. Jerena Dhas of III B.Com demonstrated outstanding academic performance and secured the 5th Rank at the university level. Her achievement reflects her hard work, perseverance, and strong determination to excel in her studies. She has been an active and sincere student throughout her course, contributing positively to both academic and co-curricular activities.

Similarly, Ms. Ashwini of II M.Com has brought laurels to the department by securing the 7th Rank at the university level. Her consistent academic record and disciplined approach to learning have played a significant role in achieving this success. She has shown great enthusiasm and dedication in all her academic pursuits.

These accomplishments highlight the quality of education imparted by the department and the continuous guidance provided by the faculty members. The department appreciates and congratulates both the students for their remarkable achievements.

Such successes motivate other students to strive for excellence and uphold the academic standards of the institution. The Department of Commerce remains committed to nurturing talent and encouraging students to achieve higher goals in their academic journey.
